Innovative Computing Systems to Hold
Panel Discussion on Cloud Disaster Recovery at International Legal Technology Association Convention & Expo

LOS ANGELES – August 8, 2017 – Innovative Computing Systems, a Los Angeles-based legal technology company, is proud to announce that its experts will sit on a panel on cloud-based backup and disaster recovery at the annual International Legal Technology Association convention.

The panel session will cover keys to successful data recovery in a catastrophic disaster: identifying appropriate selection criteria; making sound, defensible decisions; implementing a solution, including testing; and creating a workable runbook. Panelists will look at the three major overarching phases of this process.
