

Innovative Computing Systems Presents an “ALA Solution Series” Webcast on How Resilient Law Firms Leverage Innovative Technology

December 16, 2020 - Los Angeles - Innovative Computing Systems, Inc. joins the Association of Legal Administrators' ALA Solution Series Webcast program in presenting “How Resilient Law Firms Leverage Innovative Technology.” This hour-long, free program will take place at 2:00 ET on Wednesday, January 6, 2021.

In this webinar, longtime legal technology expert Michael Kemps, president and CEO of Innovative Computing Systems, will bring over 30 years of experience in the industry to bear on critical factors legal professionals should address to build resilience into their law firm technology.

Kemps will offer his advice on the following:

- Improved infrastructure for law firm business continuity
- Ransomware prevention/mitigation
- Stabilizing the law firm’s IT budget
